Timothy and Mary Penny,

Given that the submission deadline is Thursday, please plan to have DEQ's final version of the RFI comments to us by 1pm tomorrow so that the Governor's Office has time to review. My understanding is that the public input additions will be general and just a few sentences.

Thank you,

Jeremy

Timothy,

Please work off of the attached draft of DEQ comments as you add stakeholder input.

Heads up that we may need DEQ's final comments before COB tomorrow. I'm checking to see what the precise timeline is.

Jeremy:

I believe Timothy is compiling the report and it will be done by tomorrow afternoon. I'm copying him in case he thinks it can be completed earlier.

Complicating things is my travel schedule with the Atlantic Coast Pipeline hearings this afternoon/evening and tomorrow afternoon/evening. In addition, I will be participating in the Energy Policy Forum and Council meeting tomorrow morning from 8 am until noon.
